littsburg family, has been divorced by his wife, Frieda Marsh Thaw, Mrs Thaw received her decree just one week ago. The papers in the case were signed by Judge Gildersleeve. The divorce is the culmination of some years of incompatibility. Mrs. Thaw has been living apart from her husband for several months. Upon winning her suit for final separation she left the Thaw home, in East Eighty ninth street, and moved into a handsome apartment in Euclid Hall.

When interviewed there to-day by an Evening World reporter Mrs. Thaw said: "It is true that I have divorced my husband. I obtained my decree last week. I am living here with my little son Lawrence. We shall lead a very quiet, secluded life."

Mrs. Thaw refused to mention the obtained. The papers in the case are bury-3. sealed.

(Special to The Evening World.)
GREAT NECK, L. I., Nov. 7.he beautiful country estate of W. Gould Brokaw at Nirvana was the scene this afternoon of a series of steeplechase and pony races which were VICTIM FROM THIS CITY held under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. The card offered for the occasion was made up of six events, there being two His Father, a Wealthy Man, with races on the flat, one over hurdles and three steeplechases. The prizes offered were a $100 cup for the winner and a $50 plate for the second rider in each race. As society always patronizes these meets in large numbers, there was a large section of the 400 on hand when the ecopetitors in the first race went to the post. The day was a delightful 1) 1, Col.
